To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to confirm that Mahboubeh Bahari Nematabad is using BC Transit data with permission and is conducting analysis in alignment with organizational goals as well as official information & privacy policies. It's hoped that the research work being conducted to develop recommendations regarding the management of privacy for trajectory data will lead to additional opportunities to leverage de-identified data for future academic purposes.

BC Transit has provided access to relevant datasets for the purpose of this analysis and supports the work being conducted as part of this initiative subject to our standard Open Data usage constraints:

BC Transit expressly disclaims any representations and warranties of any kind with respect to the information being released. In particular, BC Transit and any additional third parties do not represent or warrant that the information provided is accurate, complete, or current. Neither BC Transit nor any third parties, employees, or other representatives will be liable for damages of any kind, including, without limitation, direct, special, indirect, consequential, punitive, or exemplary damages for loss of income, profit, or savings, and claims of third parties, arising out of or in connection with the use of the information provided. All information is released "as is" and cannot be redistributed without permission.

The data provided is governed under the British Columbia Open Government Licence.

Should you require any additional information regarding the usage of BC Transit data as part of this study, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "AM", written over a light blue horizontal line.
